Your License

You can do anything you like with these blogs other than give them away for free or add them to free membership sites. If you wish to create your own license to replace this, that's fine just be sure to include the 2 restrictions above in your new license along with any other restrictions you care to make.

Installation

This is straightforward just follow the instructions in the pdf provided.

Changing affiliate links. You can change the affiliate links to any products to your own or even offer different products if you wish.

Wishing you all the best with your IM business
